Dazed On The Green

Who says shamrocks are lucky?

Magical March to ya! The above action shot was taken at Our Lady Of Angels "Ireland By The Bay" Fun Fair, after I got decked by the pastor for interrupting Sunday mass.

Ok I'm TOTALLY kidding. As you can tell, I'm not the only one on my back. It was part of the show. The truth is, our wireless mics were sharing the same frequency, and I took over mass- until he came outside and politely asked me to cease and desist. I secretly think it was leprechauns...

Come cause some mischief of your own at this month's shows, two new venues dontcha know!
